Week 5: July 22nd – 26th Shipwrecked

Digging for Treasure!

*What is a Pirate's favorite color?
GOLD!*

Campers will dig for buried treasure in a mixture of ingredients such as baking soda, water, vinegar, and food coloring that has been hardened overnight.

Natural Wonders

Seashell Medallions

What a beauty!

Campers will press a beautiful seashell onto a clay disk they have flattened from a ball. Campers will discuss how to use natural materials to enhance their surroundings.

In It to Win It

Octopus Tag

Arrrgh!

Campers will both act like fish or an octopus and use their tentacles (arms) to try to tag the fish.

Amazing Artists

YKnots 2 ONLY

The Jolly Roger

Ahoy Mateys... Let's hoist the Jolly Roger! Campers will craft their own Skull and Crossbones in the style of Mexican Folk Art Sugar Skulls and the art of Frida Kahlo.

Special Events for this week:

Wednesday, July 24th

NO SWIM

Camp Carnival in Memorial Park

We will walk over to the park and enjoy the carnival run by our Teen Camp in the morning.

Have your camper wear their

Tie Dye Y shirt!

We will return to the Y for lunch, followed by our rescheduled Color Me Crazy Field day!

Friday, July 26th

Calling all sea dogs and swashbucklers...

Dress like a PIRATE day!

Healthy U

Save the Pirate's Booty!

Aye! Aye! Captain!

Three teams of buccaneers will listen to the captain and batten down the hatches! They will go through obstacles and booby-traps to collect all the booty, doubloons, and loot they can and bring it back to their ships.

Mix it Up.

Let's Build a Raft

This snack will warm me bones!

In the pirate's galley, campers will create a Pirate Raft by spreading chocolate frosting onto a graham cracker, laying down pretzel logs, and hoisting a pirate flag.

Dancetinations

Afro-Caribbean Dance

Sundown at the Serengeti

Campers will board the "plane" and travel to Belize! We will discuss the Afro-Caribbean cultural presence and its influences on music/dance.

Imagination Station
