Piano Studio at the Y

Svetlana Brandt, M.Mus, M.Ed

is an accomplished pianist and educator who holds a Master's Degrees in Piano Performance and Music Education and Piano Pedagogy. Mrs. Brandt has been teaching piano at all levels - from beginners to college students for 20 years.

Piano Studio at the Y offers the following programs:

1) Small group lessons for young beginners. The program consists of 6 classes and focuses on introduction of music basic elements, such as rhythm, dynamics, melody, tempo through traditional children's piano classics.

It is a great way to introduce youngsters to the world of piano and prepare the for individual piano lessons.

2) Private lessons for all levels, beginners through advanced. 45 minute sessions are available. The program is tailored to individual needs and interests.

3) "I used to play piano..." program for adults and teens who want to get back to piano playing.

Students participate in the middle and end of the year recitals on the stage of the Rosen Theater.

All levels and ages welcome

Instruction by appointment only; Summer lessons are available

Facility Members: $60/lesson
